

INCOMING TOUR OPERATOR
IN SIBERIA

Baikal Winter Tour

Day 1.

Arrival in Irkutsk. Meeting at the airport in the morning.

We will go to Listvyanka (70 km) and greet Grandfather Baikal and his daughter Angara for the first time, find out why the source of the Angara never freezes. We will definitely visit the local fish/souvenir market, where we will try the freshest omul on all of Baikal.

Lunch at the restaurant. Check-in at the hotel.

First walk on the ice of Baikal, instructions. We will skate on the largest skating rink on the planet (1-2 hours).

Evening dinner where all participants can get to know each other better.

Accommodation in Mayak hotel (rooms of the category "standard")

Lunch at the restaurant, dinner at the hotel

Day 2.

After breakfast, we dress warmly and head out onto the ice. We'll ride dog sleds at the dog sledding center or right on the ice (about 10 minutes per person).

Every year Listvyanka hosts an ice festival and celebrations. There are many different interesting installations that we'll visit. Lunch at a cozy restaurant.

We'll take the chairlift to the top of the ski slope and find the famous Chersky Stone, which offers a magnificent view of Port Baikal, the Circum-Baikal Railway, the Angara, and even the Khamar-Daban Ridge.

Accommodation in the Mayak hotel (twin rooms of standard category)

Breakfast at the hotel, lunch at the restaurant, dinner

Day 3.

After breakfast we go to the Baikal Museum, where we will know the reason why Baikal is unique, what seals eat, what a real omul looks like and much more.

Then we will have a 2-hour walk on a hovercraft (Khivus) to the Circum-Baikal Railway. We will walk through the old tunnels of the Trans-Siberian Railway of imperial times.

In free time you can walk on the ice, go skating, ride snowmobiles, do ice diving.

Accommodation in Mayak hotel (rooms of the category “standard”)

Breakfast at the hotel

Day 4.

A full day to explore the ice of Lake Baikal from a hovercraft, we will cover half of Baikal, about 300 km.

On this day, we will leave Listvyanka and begin our journey with a stop at Cape Skriper, where we will see the purest ice of the big Baikal. We will definitely stop at the most remarkable locations to enjoy the beauty to our heart's content: the bubbles of Bolshoy Goloustnoye, the soft blue ice hummock at Baklany Stone, the "stilted" trees of Peschanka.

In addition, we will stop at places that our guide chooses, nature is changeable and our ice captains already have a flair for magical views. We will have lunch at the side of the Khivus right on the ice of Baikal with prepared lunchboxes and taiga tea.

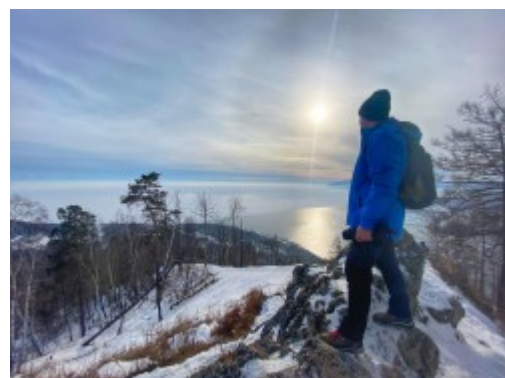

Accommodation in the Aya hotel (rooms of the category “standard”)

Breakfast at the hotel, lunch picnic, dinner

Day 5.

Free time morning in one of the most secluded bays of Baikal, where you can catch the feeling of silence and rare crackles of the great lake, the Baikal Zen that city dwellers are chasing.

Jeep tour of the Tazheran steppe. Inspection of the main cliffs and capes of the steppe, panoramic views from a bird's eye view.

By the end of the day we will arrive on Olkhon Island, where we will check into a cozy warm hotel. Rest after a busy day.

Accommodation in the Baikal Wood Eco hotel (rooms of the category “standard”)

Breakfast, lunch picnic, dinner

Day 6.

We offer to spend this day actively. Specially prepared bicycles with studded tires hold perfectly on the ice and allow you to develop serious speed on the vast expanses of Baikal ice. We skate on the largest rink on the planet.

A walk around the village of Khuzhir, a visit to an art gallery with an amazing selection of souvenirs.

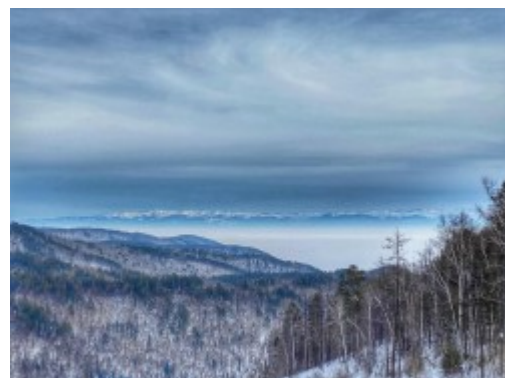

Accommodation in the Baikal Wood Eco hotel (rooms of the category “standard”)

Breakfast, lunch, dinner at the hotel

Day 7.

We leave for Cape Burkhan at dawn as a kind of farewell to Baikal (for those who wish).

Breakfast. Free time. We leave the hotel by noon and set off on a long journey to Irkutsk.

The first part of the journey lies through the epic views of the Tazheran steppe, then gives way to forests, hills and steppes of Buryatiya.

And we will definitely stop by the Marble Quarry in the village of Buguldeika. We will taste authentic Buryat cuisine along the way.

Check into the hotel in Irkutsk and rest. Final dinner - we share impressions, exchange contacts, photos and emotions!

Accommodation at a hotel of Irkutsk

Breakfast, Buryat cuisine lunch, dinner