

INCOMING TOUR OPERATOR
IN SIBERIA

Private tour "Fishing on the rivers of Siberia"

Day 1. Tuesday

Departure from Krasnoyarsk to Bor village
(Podkamennaya Tunguska Airport).

Preliminary departure time is 15:40.

Arrival at 17:40. Travelling time is 2 hours. Krasavia airlines.

A helicopter can be rented from Bor village or Nizhnevartovsk to the fishing place for extra fee.

The village is located on the left bank of the Yenisei river, 3 kilometres below the Podkamennaya Tunguska River mouth. Bor is located along a large river and is surrounded by taiga, allowing the locals to engage in hunting and fishing. These places are known for their mushrooms, berries and pine nuts. In the Bor area there are spawning grounds for sturgeon, nelma, whitefish and grayling. The territory of the Borsky village council includes the famous in Russia Osinovskaya system of rapids and islands of rocky origin, such as Korablik and Barochka islands, as well as the borders of the Central Siberian Biosphere Nature Reserve, a UNESCO biosphere reserve.

Sleeping overnight in a hotel in the Bor village. *

Accommodation in the hotel at your own expense

Meals on your own

Hotel is paid additionally 1/2/3/4-bed rooms

Day 2. Wednesday

Flight by helicopter from Podkamennaya Tunguska airport to Kellogg village (journey time 1 hour 40 min).

Free baggage allowance is 10 kg.

The maximum weight of paid baggage is 20 kg.

Upon arrival in Kellogg settlement tourists are met by the tour organiser and escorted to the place of lunch. After a small break is a trip to the shop to buy everything necessary for a traveller.

Departure by boat to the Kellogg resort, travelling time is about 6 hours. Fishing from the board.

Taimen, grayling, pike, perch, yaz, etc. are especially well fished in these places.

Overnight at the Kellogg resort. At the guests' disposal there are 6 cabins for double accommodation, a sauna 2 metres away from the Kellogg River.

Accommodation in houses at the Kellogg resort

Lunch and dinner at the resort

Breakfast at the hotel is prepared independently

Day 3 . Thursday

A trip up the Kellogg River about 30 km by boats. The boats are constructed in such a way that you can fish directly from the side.

Lunch at the Jutorma resort, return to the Kellogg resort in the evening.

Accommodation in houses at the resort

Breakfast, lunch and dinner at the resort

Day 4. Friday

Continuing the tour.

Boat trip down the Kellogg River to the Haiches River (42 km), fishing.

Bonfire lunch.

Returning to the Kellogg resort in the evening.

Accommodation in houses at the Kellogg resort

Breakfast and dinner at the resort, bonfire lunch

Day 5. Saturday

A car trip from Kordon to the Zerkala lakes (4 kilometres).

The lake is famous for its abundance. The average weight of local pikes is about 12 kg.

Having a rest on the lake. Bonfire lunch.

Returning to the Kellogg resort in the evening.

Accommodation in houses at the Kellogg resort

Breakfast and dinner at the resort, bonfire lunch

Day 6. Sunday

Continuing the tour.

Ascent to the Bolshoy Toldoks river (20 km).

Fishing for Taimen, average weight of which is from 12 kg. The river is also rich in grayling, perch, ide.

Arrival to the Kellogg resort in the evening.

Visiting a sauna.

Accommodation in houses at the Kellogg resort

Breakfast and dinner at the resort, bonfire lunch

Day 7. Monday

Boat trip from the resort to Kellogg village. It will last 6 hours.

Excursion around Kellogg village accompanied by a story about small nations of the north.

Ketas are the indigenous people of the area. Despite their ancestral Siberian roots, Ketas have a genetic connection with South American Indians. Ketas are one of the smallest northern peoples. According to the 2010 census, their population is 1220 people.

The hotel is a house with one common room, facilities outside.

Accommodation at the hotel

Breakfast at the resort, picnic lunch, dinner in the village

Day 8. Tuesday

12:00 Boarding the helicopter from Kellogg village to Bor village.

18:00-19:40 Departure from the Bor village to Krasnoyarsk with Krasavia airlines.