The Putorana Plateau HIT

Day 1.

07:30 Meeting morning flight S7 from Moscow at the airport of Norilsk (Alykel), 1 hour transfer to the city with excursion, breakfast in a cafe in Norilsk (not included).

10:00 After breakfast, stop at the supermarket, transfer to the port, board the ship and long transfer to the Putorana Plateau (3.5 hours).

14:00 Arrive at Neralakha village, lunch, check-in.

16:00 We go to the first trekking to the observation deck with a panoramic view of Lama Lake and the surrounding mountains (2.5 hours). During this trek you'll get acquainted with the landscape of the Putorana plateau, learn what kurumnik is, test your equipment and evaluate your physical readiness.

Two groups will be formed based on the results of the first exit: "sport" and "relax". Sport group includes physically prepared tourists who are ready to walk a lot and conquer the peaks; Relax group includes those who like to take their time, to stop often, take photos, pick berries and enjoy the moment.

Day 2.

09:00 Breakfast.

10:00 On open boats we travel with the wind to the isthmus of Kamenny peninsula (30-40 minutes).

Perhaps, it is here that the most beautiful observation deck on the whole Lama Lake is located. Relax group goes to two picturesque waterfalls through the observation deck with a view of Festival Mountain (4-5 hours). Sport group - goes up to the upper observation deck to the gendarme of Festivalnaya mountain (5-6 hours). It is important that from all observation platforms there is a panoramic view of two lakes: Lama and Kapchuk.

Snack in a lunch-box.

The "relax" group will have additional time for a walk along the isthmus of lakes Kapchuk and Lama, where there is a great variety of mosses, some of which are not found in other parts of the planet.

17:00-18:00 Return to the glamping site, free time.

19:00 Dinner.

Eco-hotel Neralah village

Breakfast, picnic lunch, dinner

15 km by boat, 5 km / 7.5 km on foot (relax / sport)

Day 3.

9:00 Breakfast.

Today we have a rest day from trekking.

In the first half of the day we will make a water trip on open boats towards the eastern end of Lama Lake (4-5 hours). On the way we will see the place where Nikolay Urvantsev, the discoverer and map maker of these lands, spent the winter; UFOlogists' base; eco-centre of Putoransky Reserve; the place where the expedition on search of the sunken seaplane was based.

By lunch we will return to Neralakh village.

After lunch you can go on sea kayaking trip to the neighbouring tributary, ride SUPs near the base, go to the bathhouse, pick mushrooms/berries, watch fish or just relax enjoying the beauty of the place.

19:00 Dinner.

Eco-hotel Neralah village

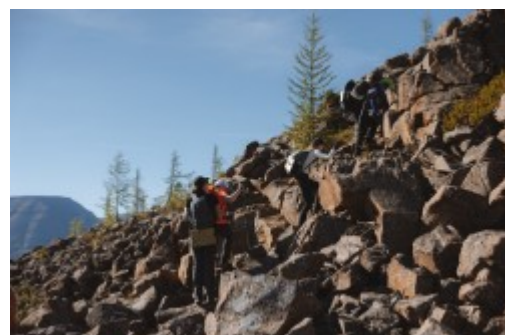

Breakfast, lunch, dinner

75 km by boat

Day 4.

9:00 Breakfast.

Today will be the most difficult day of the trip for the "sport" group - climbing to the mountain top. Height gain of 1100 metres on the pristine landscape without any trails (8-10 hours). Today the group is going to conquer the plateau and feel like explorers!

This day the "relax" group also heads out for their main trekking - it's going to be along the waterfalls, first you will see the canyon and the Neralakh waterfall from above and then you can approach the grand gorge of the 22 metre waterfall from below. Conquering the plateau will be rewarded with a mesmerising panorama of the Lama Fjord and the endless plane of mountains (5-6 hours). Here we will take a group photo and have a small picnic.

19:00 Return to the glamping site.

20:00 Dinner.

Eco-hotel Neralah Village

Breakfast, picnic lunch, dinner

6 km / 11 km on foot (relax / sport)

Day 5.

09:00 Breakfast, packing, checking out of the rooms.

We go on excursion to the Kamenny peninsula to the historical place - the first House on Lama (1 hour). Who and why built this wooden palace in the shape of an aeroplane in the wilderness of the Putorana plateau; why the neighbouring river is called Vitaminka, and what did Latvian generals do here? You will learn the answers to these and other questions during the excursion.

13:00 Return to the glamping, lunch.

After lunch transfer by ship to Norilsk city (3,5 hours).

18:00 Check-in to the hotel, dinner in one of the restaurants of the city (not included).

Day 6.

8:00 Breakfast at the hotel (included)

9:00 Transfer to the helipad.

9:30 Check-in for the flight, boarding the helicopter, departure to the Putorana plateau.

11:30 Landing at the Irkindinsky waterfall (height 27 m), one of the most impressive waterfalls of the Putorana plateau. Due to the large volume of water in the Irkinda River, the waterfall is never depleted to a small trickle and always makes a strong impression. Irkinda waterfall is located on the border of the Putoransky Reserve and in close proximity to the Chaya-Kit mountain - the habitat of the Putoran snow ram and white-tailed eagle, endemics of the reserve. So, if you are lucky, you will be able to see these rare species yourself (binoculars or a telescope will be very useful).

Inspection of the waterfall, photos. Stop duration 30 min.

12:00 Boarding the helicopter, flight back.

13:30 Return to Valek port, transfer to Norilsk.

14:00 Lunch in one of the city restaurants (not included).

15:30 2-hour sightseeing tour of Norilsk (by bus and on foot) with a visit to the old city and Golgotha memorial complex.

Norilsk is the first city in the world with multi-storey buildings on permafrost. You will learn how Bure, Smoktunovsky, Gumilev, Zhyonov and many other talented people ended up here. Why there are railings in the arches of houses, why the city's large square yards are completely covered with asphalt, what a warm corridor is and much more - a local guide will show non-tourist places of the city and tell you about the life of Norilsk residents.

17:30 Free time in the city, dinner on own in one of the restaurants of Norilsk (not included).

Hotel Norilsk 4*

Breakfast at the hotel

Day 7.

9:00 Breakfast at the hotel (included).

10:00 Departure to the Dudinka.

The city was founded in 1667 and is still the capital of Taimyr. The history of the city is closely connected with all northern expeditions, the northern sea route, and it is also the centre for all small indigenous peoples of Taimyr, leading a nomadic way of life.

12:00 Arrival in Dudinka, sightseeing tour of the city: the main square, sea port, river station, Bering Bridge, a street without a single house, the world's only newspaper in 5 languages, the venue of the World Curling Cup.

Excursion to the Museum of Local Lore (polar expeditions, mammoth "Zhenya", the last shaman on Taimyr).

14:00 Lunch in a cafe (not included).

15:00 We go to visit the indigenous people of Taymyr, communicate with people who have lived all their lives in the tundra: funny and dramatic stories from the life of reindeer herders, everyday life, traditions, crafts. Visit to a souvenir shop with works of local craftsmen, fish docks.

Return to Norilsk.

20:00 Dinner in one of the restaurants in Norilsk (not included).

Hotel Norilsk 4*
